Hey!

When you have time could you let me know the days you want to do for casual play and April. I am looking to do reporting for march tomorrow

Thanks

Hi Greg,

Can you provide us with details to load and install TCG Event Software for reporting at store? to report results

All the best

Johnny @ EA

Hey Johnny,

I have the software on my mac I can bring when we organize and conduct Play!Pokemon sanctioned events. Unfortunately it's only available to Pokemon Professors and won't do much good for reporting unsanctioned events other than keeping score. The other half is setting up tournaments on the Play! Tools page where we ask for events to be sanctioned and then upload the TDF file from TOM to their site and they handle awarding Championship Points (CP). I will be looking to set up our first pre-release tournament which we will need to upload there as well around the 17th of this month (when the sanctioning window opens) and I think Edgardo was saying he wanted to opt for a daytime pre-release tournament over doing a midnight one?

Anything else I can help with let me know. I am more than happy to attend any events you are hosting presently to bring TOM along and start setting up players in the system in prep of CP events

Talk soon,

Greg
